Kimberly Sanzo, MS, CCC-SLP

is a speech-language pathologist (SLP) and the founder of Language First. She received B.A. in Psychology and Communication Sciences and Disorders from the University of Vermont in 2010 and her M.S. in Speech and Language Pathology from Gallaudet University in 2012. She is currently a doctoral candidate for an SLPD and is also working on board certification in child language through the American Speech and Hearing Association (ASHA). She is dedicated to changing the way that SLPs understand and work with DHH children.

Anna Trupiano, M.S.Ed, EIPA 4.6

is a Deaf Education teacher who has eight years of experience working as an interpreter primarily in elementary education settings. She has taught in a wide variety of educational settings including schools for the Deaf, mainstream settings, early intervention settings, and most recently a bilingual classroom for language deprived students. She received her M.S. Ed in Deaf Education from Saint Joseph's University and her AA in Sign Language Interpretation from Lansing Community College.
